Rules for Fixation of Pay in the Revised Scale

1. The revised scales of pay shall come into force with effect from 1.7.2004.
2. Existing scale, for the purpose of these rules, is the scale of pay immediately prior to 1.7.2004.
3. Existing emoluments for the purpose of these rules shall be the total of:-
 - (i) Basic pay in the existing scale as on the date of changeover to the revised scale, including the increments, if any, accruing on such date in the existing scale. Stagnation increments shall also be reckoned for this.
 - (ii) Personal pay, if any, not specifically ordered to be absorbed in future increase of pay.
 - (iii) Special pay drawn in lieu of higher time scale of pay, provided there is no such special pay attached to the revised scale.
 - (iv) 59% of the Dearness Allowance admissible on such pay (vide items (i), (ii) & (iii) above).

Note:-

Special pay, which is in addition to pay drawn in the existing scale, shall not be reckoned for fixation of pay in the revised scale.

Fitment Benefit

4.(1) To the existing emoluments computed above shall be added an amount equal to 6% (six percent) of basic pay mentioned in rule 3(i), towards fitment benefit. If the amount computed as above falls short of Rs. 350/-, the fixation should be so made as to ensure that the employee gets a minimum fitment benefit of Rs.350/- in basic pay.

(2) After adding the fitment benefit as at (1) above, if the computed emolument is not a stage in the revised scale, it will be fixed at the next stage in the new scale. If it is a stage in the revised scale, it will be fixed at that point. If the amount arrived at after adding fitment benefit to the existing emoluments, is less than the starting point of the revised scale, it will be fixed at the minimum of the revised scale.

(3) In case the amount arrived at after adding fitment benefit to the existing emoluments is more than the maximum of the revised scale of pay, the revised pay will be fixed at the maximum, with the difference being treated as personal pay as indicated in sub-rule 5 (2) below.

Service weightage

5.(1) To the pay so fixed, one increment for each completed 4 years of service, subject to a maximum of 4 increments in the revised scale, will be added.

(2) If the amount arrived at under rule 5(1) above is more than the maximum of the revised scale, the pay shall be fixed at the maximum of the revised scale and the difference shall be treated as personal pay. Such personal pay will not be absorbed in future increase in pay on account of earning of increments. This personal pay will count for all purposes, namely, subsequent fixation of pay, leave salary, drawal of allowances including Dearness Allowance and pension.

Note:-

Service for the purpose of this rule means service (where protection of pay is allowed) including broken periods of service qualifying for normal increments in the scales of pay. Service during the period of bar on increment without cumulative effect and dies-non period will also be reckoned. Time spent on leave that will not count for normal increment will not be reckoned. Prior service of Government employees in aided educational institutions (and vice versa) will also not be reckoned for determining the length of service.

Stepping up of Pay of Senior

6. In cases where a senior Government servant promoted to a higher post before 1.7.2004 (other than a time bound higher grade) draws less pay in the revised scale than his junior promoted to the higher post after 1.7.2004, the pay of the senior employee shall be stepped up to the level of the pay of the junior with effect from the date on which the junior draws more pay, provided that:-

- (i) The senior and the junior employees should belong to the same category. They should also have been promoted to the same category of post;
- (ii) The pre-revised and revised scales of pay of the lower and higher posts in which they are entitled to draw pay should both be identical;
- (iii) The senior Government employee at the time of promotion should have been drawing equal or more pay than the junior;
- (iv) The anomaly should have arisen directly as a result of the introduction of the revised scale of pay;
- (v) The anomaly should not have arisen due to the option exercised on different dates or due to any advance increments granted to the junior in the lower post or due to increased service weightage to the junior.

Note:-

(1) If, in the pre-revised scale in the lower post, the junior employee was drawing more pay than the senior, the senior to such junior will have no claim over the pay of the junior.

(2) In case where pay of an employee is stepped up in terms of rule 6, the next increment shall be granted after completing the required service of one year in the new scale from the date of stepping up of pay.

Exercise of Option on Promotion

Rules for Fixation in the Revised Scales of Pay

- (1) The revised scales of pay will come into force with effect from 01/07/2019.
- (2) All employees who were in service as on 01/07/2019 shall come over to the revised scale of pay with effect from 01/07/2019. There will be no option facility to elect another date for pay revision.
- (3) The pay in the revised scale as on 01/07/2019 will be the corresponding revised pay stage of pre revised pay as provided in Annexure III. However, if the corresponding revised stage is less than the minimum of the revised scale of the post, the pay will be fixed at the minimum. There will be no fixation exercise for calculation of revised pay as done in previous pay revisions.
- (4) In cases where the existing pay as on 01/07/2019 is retrospectively changed after 01/07/2019 for any reason, the pay so changed will be revised as provided in Annexure III.
- (5) All appointments and promotions made on or after 01/07/2019 shall be deemed to have been made in the revised scale of pay and pay will be regulated accordingly.

Existing emoluments

- (6) The existing emoluments for the purpose of these rules will be the basic pay drawn as on 01/07/2019 in the existing scale of pay. Increments, if any, accrued on 01/07/2019 will also be reckoned.
- (7) Existing scale of pay for the purpose of these rules is the scale of pay immediately prior to 01/07/2019.
- (8) In cases where Personal pay is existing in the pre revised scale of pay, revised pay stage in the revised scales shall be arrived at based on the pre revised basic pay only. After arriving at the revised pay stage, existing Personal pay will be revised by multiplying it with the factor of 1.28 and the result will be rounded off to the next multiple of ₹100. If the amount so obtained is equal to or greater than the amount of increment(s) next above the pay fixed in the revised scale, an amount of Personal pay equal to the sum of increment(s) in the revised scales of pay will be subsumed into the basic pay in the revised scale of pay. The remaining portion of Personal pay, if any, after subsumed into basic pay will be continued in the revised scales as Personal pay. In other cases where the revised Personal pay as arrived at above is less than an increment, the Personal pay will be continued as such in the revised scale without absorption in future increase in pay.
- (9) Residuary Pay existing in the pre-revised pay structure will not be reckoned for determination of pay stage in the revised scale. The existing Residuary Pay in the pre-revised scale will be multiplied by a factor of 1.28 and the result will be rounded to the next multiple of ₹10. The Residuary Pay so fixed will be retained in the revised scale and the existing conditions of payment will continue.
- (10) Special Pay existing in the pre-revised pay structure will not be reckoned for determination of pay stage in the revised scale. The existing Special Pay in the pre-revised scale will be multiplied by a factor of 1.28 and the result will be rounded to the next multiple of ₹10. The Special Pay so fixed will be retained in the revised pay scales provided such Special Pay is not available in the revised pay scale.

(11) Stagnation increment existing in the pre-revised pay structure will not be reckoned for determination of pay stage in the revised scale. However, the number of stagnation increments drawn in the pre-revised scale will be allowed in the revised scale at the rate of last increments in the scale.

(12) In the case of an employee enjoying Personal pay, Special pay and Stagnation increment at the same time in the pre-revised pay structure, Special pay and Personal pay will be retained in the revised pay structure, each multiplied by a factor of 1.28 and rounded to the next multiple of ₹10. But Stagnation increment will be retained as provided under Rule 11.

(17) Provisional employees recruited through employment exchanges who were in service on 30/06/2019 and continued thereafter shall be eligible only for the minimum of the revised scale of pay with effect from 01/07/2019.

(18) An employee whose increment is withheld for want of declaration of probation as on 01/07/2019 will be allowed the benefit of pay revision on the basis of the pay actually drawn as on 01/07/2019 and he will continue on that pay till the date of effect of declaration of probation.
